Dear Sir,

I am from Atlanta and do business in Charleston, own property in Charleston and enjoy the town immensely. I have come to love and rely on Uber here in Atlanta and was in Charleston over Thanksgiving weekend and was thrilled to be able to use Uber a couple of times which made our trip much more enjoyable. Nobody likes having their ox gored, but the taxi companies in Charleston have been disgusting for years and riders need a clean, safe and reliable alternative which Uber provides. I know Charleston locals who have been more willing to go out to restaurants at night since Uber started service which provides a great boost to the local economy. I can tell you from experience the same holds true here in Atlanta where Uber provides a very welcome alternative to the terrible cab services here.

Uber is much safer than cab companies for both the drivers and the riders since both parties know who the other party is. You can't say the same for cab services.

Don't allow the entrenched taxi and limo services to stop a cutting edge service that greatly helps local economies. Also, if the concern is milking Uber for taxes and fees, then realize you will be reducing sales tax revenue in bars and restaurants at the same time.

Keep Uber moving. It's a great service.

Sincerely,

Bob Rogers

There can be no logical reason for not allowing uber in South Carolina. There is no doubt that taxi companies are lobbying to have Uber disallowed because Uber provides a better, cheaper, safer and more convenient service. They are better insured than Taxis and are far easier to deal with. Allow Uber!!!!
